- TITLE: Islamic fundamentalist audio recordings collection
- DATES: Circa 1965-2000
- PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: 19.25 linear feet (1459 boxes)
- LANGUAGE(S): The materials are in Arabic.
- SUMMARY: The collection consists of audio recordings (in Arabic) of sermons, lectures, speeches, recitations of the Qur'ān (Koran) and poetry, interviews, radio broadcasts, and conversations, pertaining to Islam, in particular the fundamentalist perspective, and the Arab world. Over 200 speakers, primarily clerics, from over a dozen countries in the Middle East, Indian subcontinent, and Africa, are represented, documenting the views of a range of Jihadi, reformist, and moderate Islamic religious leaders. Only a few of the speakers are identified, including Osama bin Laden. The topics covered are wide-ranging and include the Qur'ān, Islamic jurisprudence, religious obligations and practices, mujahideen, Jihad, religious instruction, women, marriage, divorce, roles and responsibilities of husbands and wives, youth, death, extremism, secularism, evangelical Christians, Jewish people, and events and conflicts in the regions represented. The recordings date primarily from the 1980s to 2000, although some date from as early as the 1960s. The recordings are comprised of commercially-produced releases, copies of commercially-produced releases, and amateur recordings.

Administrative Information

Provenance

The materials were a gift of David B. Edwards, 2006 and 2008.

The recordings are thought to have originated in Osama bin Laden's compound in Kandahār, Afghanistan. Following the Taliban's evacuation from Kandahār on December 7, 2001, the audiocassettes were acquired by CNN. CNN transferred the materials to Williams College's Afghan Media Project, headed by anthropologist David Edwards, who later donated them to Yale University.

Information about Access

The collection is open for research.

Original audiovisual materials, as well as preservation and duplicating masters, may not be played.

The entire collection has been digitized. Researchers must use the digital copies instead of the originals. Researchers wishing to access the digital copies or obtain a copy for their personal use should contact Manuscripts and Archives.

Ownership & Copyright

Copyright status for collection materials is unknown. Transmission or reproduction of materials protected by U.S. Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S.C.) beyond that allowed by fair use requires the written permission of the copyright owners. Works not in the public domain cannot be commercially exploited without permission of the copyright owners. Responsibility for any use rests exclusively with the user.

27	Tape 27. Political strategy in Islamic history 1 audiocassette Arabic Summary (English) Side A. A speaker announces a lecture by al-'Ubaydi, a professor at al-Imam Muhammad bin S'ud University, as part of a book festival in al-Riyadh. The lecture is titled "Factors of Victory and Defeat throughout Islamic History" and describes the personal and political virtues and strategies necessary for success and victory. The date of the lecture is announced as Wednesday, 23 Rabi' al-Awwal of the year "one thousand, four hundred, and one thousand" of the Hijri calendar, presumably a mistake. Assuming 1400 as a starting point, there are five possibilities within the date range of the collection: 12/28/83, 11/26/86, 10/2/91, 8/31/94, and 7/3/99. Side B. 29	Tape 29. Jihad 1 audiocassette Arabic Summary (English) Side A. The same speaker on Cassette 28 gives a sermon on jihad. He recites the relevant texts and urges all Muslims to engage in jihad. He describes the conditions in the Marka refugee camp in Jordan and urges all Muslims to fight against Jews for a Muslim Palestine. At 37.15, he concludes and prayer is called. Prayer is heard from a distance, but other material is heard in the background, likely from a previous use of the tape. Audio quality is medium: speech is mostly intelligible, with occasional cuts and faint sections. Side B. The same sermon on Cassette 28a is heard, but audio quality is much poorer. Circa 10.00-40.00, a different sermon, likely by the same speaker, plays simultaneously. Both sermons are barely intelligible. Preservation masters 2 computer files (WAV) Use copies 2 computer files (MP4)	Circa 1965-2000
30	Tape 30. Jihad in Afghanistan during Soviet War 1 audiocassette Arabic Summary (English) Side A. A speaker describes his experience fighting with the Mujahideen during the Soviet War. He describes a recent battle in Paghman, Afghanistan, likely in 1988 or 89, in detail. He urges listeners to join the effort and responds to possible objections or obstacles. He speaks in Saudi-accented MSA and the location is likely Saudi Arabia. Audio quality is high to medium. 	Comments: Background noise but audio is intelligible. Side A 30:38 min. Side B 31:04 min. Speaker: Unknown. Place: Unknown. Side A: A member of the Mujahideen describes recent developments on the war front. He is never introduced but is occasionally addressed as Usāmah. He describes the fighting near Jalalabad and gives details about weaponry and strategy. The Mujahideen suffered an ammunition shortage and the Soviets had deployed a force from Kandahar in anticipation thereof. He then tells personal anecdotes about the deaths of specific people on the field and the signs of martyrdom (painlessness, smell of myrrh, etc.). He describes the capture of Soviet tanks and concludes by asking the audience for questions. Audience members ask about the nature of the obligation to engage in Jihad, objections commonly raised by Muslims against it, and similar issues. The lecture is in Modern Standard Arabic and audio quality is high. There is a notable interruption in the audio circa 15-17 minutes, where different material has been recorded over the lecture. A speaker recites or sings a short poem addressing a walker at night that will eventually arrive. Side B: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) 0:00 to 16:00 Continuation of side A. 33	Tape 33. A sermon on Jihad and the risks that surround the Islamic nation and the "land of the two holy sanctuaries" 1 audiocassette Arabic Summary (English) Comments: Recording is faint. Audio is intelligible with some background noise. There is a gap in the recording between 3:23 and 3:30 then the same sermon starts again from the beginning in higher quality. Side A: 45:41min. Side B: 25:43 min. Speaker: The speaker is most likely Usāmah ibn Lādin. Place: Saudi Arabia. Side A: The speaker gives a sermon on Jihad, the risks that surround the Islamic nation, and the infidels' plans to occupy the "land of the two holy sanctuaries" (Saudi Arabia). The speaker refers to "Al-rāfiḍah" meaning Shiites and to the recent events referring to the clashes in Saudi Arabia with Shiite pilgrims (This occurred in 1987; therefore, the sermon and recording must have been made after that year). The speaker again reiterates the importance of Jihad and the willingness to fight the "infidels". He mentions the "mujahideen" and fighting the Russians in Afghanistan. He also mentions a country in the southern part of the Arab Peninsula ruled by communism and incites people there to Jihad. He praises the mujahideen who went to	Circa 1987-1990

The sermon ends at 10:00 when the speaker allows for questions. People start asking about the news from Afghanistan, "Al-ḥijārah" revolution in Palestine, and the news of the mujahideen in Eritrea. The speaker answers a question about how to join the mujahideen in Afghanistan by providing a phone number which can be called from Riyadh or Jeddah to get discounted flight tickets on Saudi Airlines to Islamabad in Pakistan to meet with persons who wait in the airport to take them to the training camps. The sermon cuts off at 25:34 which is the end of the recording. Preservation masters 2 computer files (WAV) Use copies 2 computer files (MP4)

Box	Description	Date(s)
	Summary (English) Side A. A speaker gives a lecture on "how to gain a brother". The speaker initiates the story of the prophet Mohammed when he moved to al-Madīnah al-Munawwarah and united the Muslims based on the idea of brotherhood. The speaker mentions in the lecture that if any person wants to gain a new brother he must follow this advice: (1) The avoidance of doubt in the Muslims; (2) Amnesty makes the heart clear; (3) Pray for all Muslims; (4) The promotion of virtue and prevention of vice; and (5) The spreading of peace. The speaker states that if any Muslim follows these fundamental rules, [he] will gain new brothers. Audio cuts occasionally, but mostly intelligible. Side B. The speaker continues advising on how to gain a brother: (1) By smiling in your brother's face is a charity; (2) By giving gifts to each other makes people love each other; (3) With a handshake; (4) By showing concern; (5) By showing empathy for them, rejoice and grieve with them. Preservation masters 2 computer files (WAV) Use copies 2 computer files (MP4)
701	Tape 701. The influence of media 1 audiocassette Arabic Summary (English) Side A. A speaker gives a lecture in Modern Standard Arabic on the influence of the media in Egyptian society. The speaker starts the lecture with a statement on how in Egypt no one follows good manners or good habits due to the influence of the media and other things, expect people from the country side or the "Ṣaʿīdah". The speaker describes how actors get thousands and millions, while the majority of people in Egypt live on subsistence, and many families cannot buy meat; the speaker asks the audience a simple question: how many people in Egypt can eat meat once or twice a week. The speaker also states that the meat meal in Egypt takes a quarter or one third of salaries for some families. The speaker also discusses about different topics such as: the number of graduate students who cannot find a job and who emigrate to different countries. The speaker also mentioned the religious awakening, the kidnapping of children, and the influence of the media which leads people to many problems such as marital issues and society's belief that sins become virtues. Toward the end of the tape the speaker starts a new lecture, where he tells story of Ḥasan al-Bannā (the founder of the Muslim Brotherhood) and how he started his organization. Side B. The speaker talks about the influence of the media in Egyptian society. The speaker says that many Egyptian plays, such as "al-Wād Sayyid al- shaghāl", which is a play that is filled with the mocking of values of religion and the messenger of Islam, present problematic views. The speaker gives examples of movies and plays that make fun of religion or people from the countryside or the Ṣaʿīdah. Toward the end of the audiotape the speaker mentions that many Egyptian movies and plays contain "kisses" which are incompatible with religion and customs. Preservation masters 2 computer files (WAV) Use copies 2 computer files (MP4)	Circa 1965-2000

The speaker continues on giving examples of young people who pursued everything that Islam asked them to do, from praying to reciting Quran. The speaker also mentioned many verses from the Quran and Hadiths about the youth and Quran. Preservation masters 2 computer files (WAV) Use copies 2 computer files (MP4)
703	Tape 703. The Gulf war and Iran 1 audiocassette Arabic Summary (English) Side A. Sheikh Aḥmad al-Qaṭṭān gives a lecture on the Gulf War and Iran. The speaker states that Jihad for God's sake became a complicated law in our days. The speaker gives examples of how the prophet Muhammad organized the soldiers in his time. Side B. The same speaker gives examples of how Al-ṣaḥābah were protecting the Prophet during the battle of Uhud. He recites the relevant texts that deal with Jihad. The speaker also mentioned that the Prophet and his Sahabah were always ready for battles. Toward the end of the audiotape another speaker answers questions from the audience about Kuwaiti youth going to some African countries to help and teach other Muslims. The speaker discusses a trip by some Kuwaiti graduate students, who built an Islamic center. The middle of the audiotape is faint, but intelligible. Preservation masters 2 computer files (WAV) Use copies 2 computer files (MP4)	Circa 1965-2000
704	Tape 704. Muslim scholar 1 audiocassette Arabic Summary (English) Side A. A speaker gives a sermon in Modern Standard Arabic on a story of one Muslim scholar who was placed in prison. A different speaker called for prayer. Toward the end of the audiotape a different speaker recites from Qu'ran 62:1-11, 63:1-11 and 64:1-6. The beginning of the tape is incomprehensible. Side B. A new speaker delivers a sermon on "the world and its contradictions," stating that our society inverted the meanings of many things; for example alcohol means spiritual drinks, hypocrisy means compliments, adultery means personal freedom, adornment means civilized, obscenity becomes art, lying becomes diplomacy, Atheism becomes progressivism, faith becomes intolerance and reactionary and advice becomes a scandal. In the second part of the sermon the speaker gives examples of newspapers that tend to distort the meaning of fatwas issued by Muslim clerics. At the end of the audiotape the speaker mentions that the Islamic scholar Mohamed Al-'awdi has been stopped from preaching in the mosques or in the media. Preservation masters 2 computer files (WAV)	Circa 1965-2000

705	Tape 705. The holy land 1 audiocassette Arabic Summary (English) Side A. The audiotape starts with the call to prayer. A speaker gives a sermon in Modern Standard Arabic on the holy land of Palestine. The speaker expresses his feelings when he saw on TV that atfāl al-ḥijārah (Children of the stone) in Palestine were hitting the Israeli soldiers with rocks and the soldiers were hiding behind a wall. The speaker asks the audience why the Israeli soldiers are afraid of children armed only with rocks, suggesting that perhaps it is because they mention God's name before throwing their stones. The speaker also mentions that Palestine is a blessed land, a land of olive and orange trees; a land which smells like musk. The speaker continues to tell the story of Lot when he moved to the holy land Palestine. Palestine is a holy and blessed land because it is a land of prophets, dozens of which are buried there. Towards the end of the audiotape the speaker mentions that the first Qiblah (the direction where Muslims pray) was facing Palestine. Side B. Continuation of side A; the speaker gives examples from the newspaper that in 1967 a few Palestinian youth killed many Israeli soldiers during one of their festivals. Israeli radio states that the battle between Palestinian youth and Israeli soldiers was one of the very violent. In the middle of the audiotape the same speaker gives a sermon on the war on Tarablus (Tripoli, Lebanon). The speaker then discusses the war in Lebanon during the Prophet Muhammad's time when they built a trench as protection from the enemies. At the end of the audiotape, the speaker encourages Muslims to show charity to others. Preservation masters 2 computer files (WAV) Use copies 2 computer files (MP4)	Circa 1965-2000
706	Tape 706. The political parties 1 audiocassette Arabic Summary (English) Side A. The audiotape starts with the Islamic call to prayer. The speaker discusses political parties and the crusades. The speaker also states that God is on the side of the faithful. Side B: A speaker gives a sermon in Modern Standard Arabic on the virtues of Jihad. The speaker explains the benefits of Friday which is the day when Adam was created, admitted to, and expelled from heaven; the Day of Judgment; and one of heaven's days, when faithful people visit their merciful God. The speaker continues on the benefits of Jihad and asks the parents to teach their children such Muslim principles as the prohibition of swearing except by Allah, and the chastity of the mothers of believers. In the middle of the tape, the prayer starts and a different speaker recite Qu'ran 3:121-148. Preservation masters 2 computer files (WAV) Use copies 2 computer files (MP4)	Circa 1965-2000

A sermon on the "Judgment Day" mentions an author who claimed to know when the Judgment Day would occur, based on some mathematical calculations. The speaker reads the relevant verses from the Qur'an, where it is said that only God knows when the day of Judgment will be (5:109, 6:59 and 7:187). The speaker states that the author mentions that the Judgment day will be on 2890 or 1710 Hijri. The speaker explains the verse 7:187 "They ask thee about the (final) Hour - when will be its appointed time? Say: "The knowledge thereof is with my Lord (alone): None but He can reveal as to when it will occur. Heavy were its burden through the heavens and the earth. Only, all of a sudden will it come to you." They ask thee as if thou wert eager in search thereof, Say: "The knowledge thereof is with Allah (alone), but most men know not." He also mentions that the point of not knowing the time of judgment day is to be ready. In the second sermon the speaker explains the women situation from Humat. Side B. 1035	Tape 1035. Foreigners in the land of al-Ḥaramayn 1 audiocassette Arabic  Summary (English)  Side A. The speaker, Usāmah ibn Lādin, gives a lecture on "Foreigners in the land of al-Ḥaramayn". The speaker states that eight years earlier (Hijra 1402-1411), legions of Christians invaded the Arab Peninsula. The speaker states that over 760 thousand Americans and British are invading the Arab Peninsula. He also mentions a story that happens before the birth of Mohammed, when king Abraha (King of Habshah in Pre-Islamic time) tries to devastate al-Ka'bah and forces the Arabs to go to his church. The speaker states that even though the Arabs were not monotheistic believers the Ka'bah was very important to them and they tried to save it but they were not strong enough for the Abraha army. The audio tape stops for few minutes. The speaker mentions that Americans are controlling al-Ḥaramayn (Saudi Arabia) because it contains 70 percent of the world's petroleum. The speaker also states that the Israelis are the people who are controlling the United States. Toward the end of the audio tape, the speaker mentions that Muslims should respond to the Fatwā regarding Jihad; he also encourages Muslims to create an International Islamic Conference to support the Holy sites. 1100	Tape 1100. Animals in the Qur'ān 1 audiocassette Arabic Summary (English) Side A. A man and his grandchildren play a game impersonating characters from a book titled "Animals in the Qu'ran." The grandfather tells his grandchildren the story of Adam's children Cain, Abel (Qābīl and Hābīl) and their conflict, which leads to the first crime in the history of humanity, and how God sends a crow to teach Qābīl a lesson. Note: The play is introduced by a brief description of the animals in the story. Side B. The grandfather tells the story of the Elephant and King Abrah, which takes place before the birth of the Prophet. King Abrah (a pre-Islamic ruler) built a new shrine and wanted the Arabs to make a pilgrimage to this new shrine rather than to the Ka'ba (a Muslim holy place built by the prophet Ibrahim and his son Ismail). Upon the Arabs' refusal to obey him, King Abrah decided to have the Ka'ba destroyed by an elephant, but God saved His holy house by sending birds with fire and forcing the elephant to disobey the King's orders. Preservation masters 2 computer files (WAV) Use copies 2 computer files (MP4)	Circa 1965-2000
